Giclee Print Order Standard Turnaround Times

I process all giclee orders as quickly as possible, while still working to achieve a high level of detail and quality in my work. From the time I receive a digital image, I work to process a reasonably sized order in 3-5 business days. Each order takes editing, proofing, formatting, cutting and packaging. Please allow at least 2 business days for you to receive/review your mailed proof and another 2-3 business days for the arranged delivery/shipment of the final print. Handcrafted wood and stretched canvas will take longer to construct and can be quoted individually. If you need a rushed order (1-2 day pickup), I will have to assess if I could get the project done in this amount of time individually and charge an additional $40.00 for expedited delivery, Although making a high quality giclee print may take a little more time than printing a standard color copy, the end result from an experienced printer is well worth the wait!

Options for Stretched Canvas Giclée:

(Prices below do not include printing cost. Please refer to printing cost above or contact me for more details.)

Canvas can be wooden backed for easy shipment or constructed in the traditional stretched canvas style.

I offer hand painted white or black sides for canvas prints no additional cost, or some artists choose to embellish their prints themselves

Frames come ready to hang on the wall with all appropriate hardware

Width X Height X 0.21(labor and supplies)= Total Cost for finishing
